JAPAN MAY STOP SHIP SUBSIDY, IS REPORT

The Toyo Kisen Kaisha has been hit hard in the reported reduction of subsidies granted by the Japanese government, according to officers of the Anyo Maru.

Officers in the Anyo Maru admitted that at a recent cabinet meeting at Tokyo the question of eliminating the subsidy of 3,000,000 yen for 1915 was given serious consideration. The steamers in the transpacific line, including the Shinyo, Tenyo, Chiyu and Nippon Maru are each provided for in former government subsidies. A considerable sum is allotted to the maintenance of the Anyo and its sister ship, Seiyu Maru. It was said today the term of the subsidies granted to the Nippon Yusen Kaisha, the Osaka Shosen Kaisha and the Toyo Kisen Kaisha thus expires with the new year. At the last ordinary session of the Imperial diet, a bill providing for the renewal of the subsidies was introduced, but failed to pass the legislature, owing mainly to the retirement of the Yamamoto cabinet. At the council, the communications authorities urged the importance of opening a tri-weekly Panama service, with eight steamers, each of 6000 tons, and asked for a subsidy of 1,600,000 yen to a company ordered by the government to operate the new service. This proposal was, however, shelved, owing to the fear that the inauguration of the new route might seriously affect the Tacoma, Seattle and San Francisco services now maintained by the above-mentioned companies. It is understood that the new service is ready to be opened as soon as the circumstances permit.

Claudine Tows Honolulu.

The schooner Claudine, loaded with a quantity of sugar for coast refiners, was towed from Hana, Maui, to the open sea by the Inter-Island steamer Claudine yesterday. The Claudine had been discharged of general cargo brought from San Francisco. The Claudine returned to Honolulu this morning with 375 bags of sugar, 45 head of cattle, 36 hogs, 16 crates of chickens, 30 sacks of spuds, 62 sacks of taro and 25 packages of sundries. The vessel is reported by Purser Pieper to have met with fine weather.

Great Northern Disabled.

A serious breakdown in its turbines is reported to have caused a delay in the sailing of the new Great Northern liner Great Northern from San Francisco to its Oregon terminal. The vessel had steamed past Point Reyes when the machinery became disabled and the liner was obliged to turn back for repairs. At the time the Oceanic steamer Sierra departed from the coast to Honolulu it was believed the Great Northern might be sent to the east coast shipyard for a general overhauling.

A. A. Young, acting for the Territorial Hotel Company, today purchased from the government a piece of land on Kalakaua avenue, comprising about 14,692 square feet and situated opposite the Moana hotel, for $4401, the upset price being $4400. FREIGHTER MADE WAY THROUGH MINE FIELDS

The British freighter Lodoro today paid its second visit to Honolulu since the Panama canal was opened to traffic. The vessel, filled with case oil, machinery, motor-trucks and general cargo for delivery at Japan and Siberia, is taking 250 tons of coal before steaming to the Far East.

Capt. B. L. Coats is a new skipper in the vessel. This is his first visit to the islands. The Lodoro was to have called at the crossroads some weeks ago. At the last minute its cargo was diverted to Great Britain and the continent. The vessel made a quick round-trip to the British Isles with case oil, evading damage or destruction in steaming through mine-strewn seas.

The Lodoro left Philadelphia on March 3. It passed through the canal on March 13. Pleasant weather was the rule after leaving the Auntie for the Pacific. The vessel is expected to leave for the Orient this steamer. Capt. Coats is accompanied by his wife.

TACOMA BOY ONE OF THOSE LIST WHEN F-4 SANK

From Tacoma, Wash., comes this pathetic note on one of the victims of the F-4 disaster:

"Clark George Buck, age 22, gunner's mate, second class, one United States submarine F-4, who lies under 50 fathoms of water at Honolulu after sinking yesterday, was the son of Mrs. Amanda Brag, 3608 South E street. He was a graduate of the Fern Hill school and led in Tacoma from 1905 to 1909 when he joined the navy. He was born in California, Mo.

"In all the six years at George has been with the navy has never learned to drink, smoke or chew," said Mrs. Schrag day. "He was a member of the Y. M. C. A. and carried his card with him wherever he went. It was his intent to make the navy his life-work. He was in Tacoma last summer on vacation.

"The drowned sailor lives four brothers—Lee Buck, lieutenant at Tacoma fire house No. 2; H. Buck, at Everett; Roy Buck, attends the Tacoma city schools; Victor Buck, Nebraska; two sisters, Misses Buck, living with her mother, Mrs. F. Ryan of Kansas City."
